SAN GIMIGNANO San Gimignano is an ancient fortified medieval village whose walls date back to the year one thousand. It is famous for its historical and artistic heritage and its architecture, especially its towers. In 1990 it was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. Its local products are also highly appreciated, including saffron and the white wine Vernaccia di San Gimignano.

HOW TO MOVE The medieval city is surrounded by walls. The village is accessed through various gates: Porta San Matteo, Porta San Giovanni, Porta Quercecchio, Porta San Jacopo and Porta delle Fonti. The center is pedestrianized and cars must be left just outside the walls. You can also reach the town by public transport.

WHAT TO SEE The historic center of San Gimignano, a world heritage site, offers medieval masterpieces including the famous towers that still stand out over its panorama and which have earned it the definition of "Manhattan of the Middle Ages". Of the 72 towers today 16 remain, the oldest is Torre Rognosa, 51 meters high, and the tallest is Torre del Podestà at 54 m. The heart of the town is Piazza del Duomo, full of buildings and palaces such as Palazzo Vecchio del Podestà and the Palazzo Comunale also called Palazzo Nuovo and the Palazzo della Propositura, home to the Archive of the Opera with important manuscripts from the 15th century. The Cathedral instead preserves valuable works by great Tuscan artists.
